

Shadows Of Ancient Times

The Quest, Part VI

And from the deepest depths of the earth
From ancient times, awakes to life
A saga, so old and foreign,
Its memory based on fears

Awoken from the dark knight's last breath
Awoken from the death of the old king
Arisen from the dungeons of the earth
Arisen from the hell of evil

Is it life?
Is it a danger?
Is it life? It arises, step by step,
Is it a danger? It arises, breath by breath

The princess grieves over the death of the dark knight
People are shivering in fright
They only know what this can mean
That a menace never seen on earth before
Reaches the surface of the land
