

WHALE RIDER

I      DEPARTURE

leaving home and friends playground of my life to live a virtual dream coming true to follow the burning desire to feel the rhythm of the waves

II      TO THE SEA

longing for the sea to the end of the horizon where I see smooth waves forming moving grounds becoming one with mother earth, with father universe me, the ocean child

I row the boat, I set the sails getting out of a world of human robots the boat is dancing on the waves heading to a world unknown

III      THE GIANT

(i)      invitation

the ocean opens up, wuthering waves forming hills and valleys, shiny and dark when suddenly a giant is rising from the depths a magic body lifts up in the air

Lyrics by Hartmut Hotzel CC 4.0 BY SA NC Version 2024-12 <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/deed.de>

Music by Robert Sillat, arranged by the Principles of Uncertainty he eyeballs me with hypnotizing powers he's the one who knows the secrets of the ocean surprised to see me on his side and he invites me for a ride a ride

(ii)    *the ride begins riding on a whale's back high above the waves stuck on slippery, old grey, ragged skin magic holds me safely on the giant's back riding thru the crests, thru troubled waters and a sound I never heard before is in my head colours never seen before encounter all my senses riding to eternity thru stormy clouds of foam steering all the turmoil to a secret dream

(iii)    *climax

is he still a friend of mine protecting me from harm avoiding dangers from the distant human world avoiding dangers from the living depths so close to me does he still enjoy the ride as I do

I' _____ m a queenie of the sea I' _____ m a jeannie of the endless waves waters mingling with the airclouds, stormclouds dive into the water beautiful phantastic worlds surround my mystic ride

(iv)    *conclusion

until I awake